

Monday 9, December 2013

Perspectives of the Integration between Biocosmology and Asian Bioethics
The 6th International Seminar on Biocosmology

9:00–9:20 Opening Session (1): Welcome addresses

Kwon Jong Yoo, Korea	President of the Biocosmological Association
Darryl Macer, New Zealand	UNU-IAS, Japan; Director, Eubios Ethics Institute, New Zealand, Japan and Thailand; Provost, AUSN, USA
Takao Takahashi, Japan	Kumamoto University, Chairman of the 2013 Seminar in Kumamoto

9:20–12:00 Session 2: Perspectives of the Integration: Focusing on the general issues
Chair: Takao Takahashi

Konstantin Khroutski, Russia	Asian bioethics and the Biocosmological Triadic approach – their joint contribution to the creation of the Integralist sphere for contemporary scholarly pursuits
Kwon Jong Yoo, Korea	Biocosmology in Confucianism
Darryl Macer, New Zealand	Biocosmology and Ethical World Views of Nature
Xiaoting Liu, China	The Constructiveness and Its Theoretic Foundation
Naoshi Yamawaki, Japan	The Concept and Scope of Glocal Public Philosophy
Sivanandam Panneerselvam, India	The Ecological Turn and Bio-cosmology: Inter-relation among Human Being, Nature and Cosmos
Abdul Wahab Suri, Pakistan	The Possibility of Bio-Grand-Narrative: The Re-assertion of Modern Ethos at the Juncture of Post-modernity

13:00–14:45 Session 3: Perspectives of the Integration: Focusing on the development of the Organicist (Aristotelian and Integralist) philosophy
Chair: Konstantin Khroutski

Koji Tachibana, Japan	A way of discussing Aristotelian virtue
Tao Zhang, China	The Theory Foundation of Biocosmology and Its Homogeneity with Asian Bioethics
Makoto Ozaki, Japan	Tanabe's philosophy in the comparative contexts
Susumu Tanabe, Japan	Procession of soul (ή ψυχή) in Plotinus and notion of Nature
ASM Anwarullah Bhuiyan, Bangladesh	Is Aristotle's Natural Philosophy Anthropocentric or Biocentric? Case of Autopoiesis and Biocosmology

15:00–17:00 Special symposium: Perspectives of the Integration - Focusing on the discovery and research of the Asian holistic (naturalist, Integralist) approaches to bioethical development

Chair: Xiaoting Liu

Chutatip Umavijani, Thailand	Asian Holistic Outlook: Health, Medicine and Way of Life
Masayuki Kodama, Japan	Preliminary Research into the Spiritual Backbone of Vietnam for an Investigation of Vietnamese Reproductive Medical Ethics
On-Kwok Lai, Hong Kong	Questioning Eco-Justice in Hyper-Modernizing 21st Century: Contradictions of the Initiatives for Sustainability in a Globalizing World
Yasushi Iwabuchi, Japan	Sustainable challenge in Okayama city- collaboration action between city, university and territory
Kenjiro Uemura, Japan	Spirituality and the Concept of Amae or the Desire to Be Loved
Kayo Uejima, Japan	Inner journey for self-saving by psychophysical exercise: Yoga of Swami Vivekananda
Jayapaul Azariah, India	Some reflections on Biocosmology in ancient sacred texts – Rig Veda and Bible (Genesis 1:1)

17:00–17:30 Session (4): General discussion – Prospects for Integration of Biocosmology and bioethics

Chair: Darryl Macer

17:30–18:00 Closing session (5) – BCA organizational issues

Chair: Kwon Jong Yoo